RHAN 1

1. taswn i - if I were (to)

Taswn i'n mynd i . . .	-	If I were to go to . . .
Taswn i'n ymddeol . . .	-	If I were to retire . . .
Taswn i'n byw yn . . .	-	If I were to live in . . .

In English this 'if' is often followed by the Past Tense of the verb in everyday speech. But take care - this is NOT really a Past Tense sentence

Taswn i'n mynd i . . .	-	If I went to (i.e. If I were to go to)
Taswn i'n ymddeol . . .	-	If I retired (i.e. If I were to retire)
Taswn i'n byw yn . . .	-	If I lived (i.e. If I were to live in . . .)

Taswn i'n mynd i Lundain, fe faswn i eisiau mynd i weld Eglwys Gadeiriol Sain Paul ac Abaty Westminster.

- If I were to go (If I went) to London, I would want to go to see St Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey.

Taswn i'n mynd i Baris, fe faswn i'n gweld Tŵr Eiffel.

- If I were to go (If I went) to Paris, I'd see the Eiffel Tower.

Fe faswn i'n gweld y Grand Canyon, taswn i'n mynd i America.

- I'd see the Grand Canyon, if I were to go (if I went) to America.

Fe faswn i eisiau mynd i'r Kremlin, taswn i'n mynd i Moscow.

- I'd want to go to the Kremlin, if I were to go (if I went) to Moscow.

2. You've noticed, that just like English, the 'taswn i' pattern can come at the beginning of the sentence - or in the middle Taswn i'n ennill y Loteri, fe faswn i'n prynu Ferrari.

- If I were to win (If I won) the Lottery, I would buy a Ferrari.

Fe faswn i'n prynu Ferrari, taswn i'n ennill y Loteri.

- I would buy a Ferrari, if I were to win (If I won) the Lottery.

3. Taswn i ti / Taswn i chi - If I were you

This is a useful phrase to know - we all like to give advice!

Taswn i ti, fe faswn i'n prynu car newydd.

- If I were you, I'd buy a new car.

Taswn i chi, mi faswn i'n mynd i'r gwely'n gynnar.

- If I were you, I'd go to bed early.

4. eisiau

This is the only verb which does NOT require 'yn' in front of it

fe faswn i eisiau
but fe faswn i'n mynd

taswn i eisiau
but taswn i'n gweld

5. tasai e(o)/ hi - if he / she were (to) tasai'r gwesty - if the hotel were (to)

tasai hi'n mynd	-	if she were to go (if she went) tasai e (o)'n gallu	-	if he were able to (if he could) tasai'r plant yn dod	-	if the children were to come (if the children came)

Tasai fy merch yn gallu defnyddio cyfrifiadur, fe fasai hi'n gallu gweithio mewn swyddfa.

- If my daughter were able to use a computer, she would be able to work in an office.

Fe fasai John yn hoffi dysgu Sbaeneg, tasai e'n cael y cyfle.

- John would like to learn Spanish, if he were to have (if he had) the opportunity.

Mi fasai Mary wrth ei bodd, tasai hi'n cael persawr yn anrheg.

- Mary would be in her element, if she were to have (if she had) perfume as a present.

6. Remember that there is no neutral 'it' in Welsh. We use 'e (o)' or 'hi'. When referring to TIME and the WEATHER we use the feminine 'hi'.

Tasai hi'n braf, fe fasen ni'n mynd i lan y môr.

- If it were fine, we'd go to the seaside.

Mi faswn i'n aros yn y tŷ, tasai hi'n bwrw eira.

- I'd stay in the house, if it were to snow.

Tasai hi'n bwrw eira, fe fasai'r plant wrth eu bodd.

- If it were to snow, the children would be in their element.

7. When using the 'taswn' forms, adjectives such as the following are useful:

yn dalach	-	taller	yn gyflymach	-	faster
yn deneuach	-	thinner	yn llai swnllyd	-	less noisy

Tasai e'n dalach, fe fasai e'n gallu bod yn blismon.

- If he were taller, he could be a policeman.

Tasai John yn gyflymach, fe fasai e'n gallu chwarae ar yr asgell.

- If John were faster, he would be able to play on the wing.

8. I'm sure that you've noticed that we can place a verb after this pattern

Taswn i'n mynd	-	if I were to go
Tasai hi'n gweld	-	if she were to see

Or we can place an adjective

Taswn i'n oer	-	if I were cold
Tasai Tom yn dalach	-	if Tom were taller

9. You don't have to keep the same person of the verb in both halves of the sentence.

fe faswn i . . .	taswn i . . .
fe fasai hi . . .	tasai hi . . .

Any persons can be used:

fe faswn i . . .	tasai hi . . .
	tasai Tom . . .
fe fasai Tom . . .	taswn i . . .

10. Remember that we use the 3rd person singular form of the verb even with a plural noun

Tasai'r plant yn dod adref o'r ysgol nawr, fe faswn i'n gallu mynd i siopa.
- If the children were to come (if the children came) home from school now, I would be able to (could) go shopping.
